WRITING IN THE CITY

April 25, 2016. Grissom 102. 7-9 pm

- Poetry reading featuring Adriana Garriga-López: 9-10:30 pm at Star City Coffee and Ale House, 210 Main Street, Lafayette

April 26, 2016. Krannert (Rawls Hall) 2079. 10-11:30 am

David Buuck will present a multimedia talk and performance focused on urban politics and landscape in the San Francisco Bay Area. The talk covers his work as/for BARGE (the Bay Area Research Group in Enviro-aesthetics), a multi-platform art project that combines site-specific art and performance with investigations of militarized and gentrifying urban landscapes.

David Buuck is a writer and activist who lives in Oakland, CA. He is the founder of BARGE, the Bay Area Research Group in Enviro-aesthetics, and co-founder and editor of Tripwire, a journal of poetics. Recent publications include SITE CITE CITY (Futurepoem, 2015) and An Army of Lovers, co-written with Juliana Spahr (City Lights, 2013). A Swarming, A Wolfing is forthcoming from Roof Books in 2016. davidbuuck.com
